His Royal Highness,
Crown Prince Abdullah Ben Abdul Aziz,
Riyadh,
Saudi Arabia.

We wish to inform your Royal Highness that we have received reports that Tunisian authorities may seek extradition of Sheikh Abdel-Fettah Moro, in pursuance of their campaign against Muslims who call for application of Shariah laws and respect for Islamic values in Tunisian society.

Sheikh Moro, a Muslim scholar from Tunisia, is now living in Saudi Arabia and according to reports Tunisian Government intends to hold show trials and punish him, alongwith many others. It is feared that Sheikh Moro will be sentenced to death if he is returned to Tunisia.

I hope that in keeping with the noble traditions of your great father, Malek Abdul Aziz, and Islamic imperatives, the Kingdom will continue to protect Sheikh Moro and never deliver him to the Tunisian authorities.

May Allah protect and bless you and guide your steps in the service of Islam.

Salem Azzam
Secretary General
Islamic Council
